REGIONAL OVERVIEW

THE AMERICAS

GALE'S CORE PRODUCT RANGES CONTINUED TO RESONATE STRONGLY WITH CONSUMERS AND CUSTOMERS, WITH CONSUMER DEMAND NORMALISING FOLLOWING THE PANDEMIC HOME IMPROVEMENT SURGE IN 1H FY21.

First half revenue was up 88% compared to 1H FY20, a direct result of the Company's growth strategy in the region.

New national core shade fabric and shade sails category expansion program in a major home improvement retailer secured.

Further marketing and selling capabilities and resources will drive product innovation, category expansion, distribution expansion, brand activation, and accelerate eCommerce growth in 2H and beyond.

REVENUE

EBITDA

AUSTRALIA & NEW ZEALAND

1H FY22 REVENUE WAS DOWN 9% ON 1H FY21 BUT UP 55% ON 1H FY20, DRIVEN BY MORE MODERATE CONSUMER BUYING BEHAVIOUR AFTER PANDEMIC-RELATED HIGH IN 1H FY21 AND THE IMPACT OF COOLER, WETTER WEATHER.

GALE secured incremental new ranging and promotional placements across home improvement retail partners and commenced trading with several pure play eCommerce customers, while another record Australian grain harvest drove solid demand for coated fabrics used in grain handling applications.

GALE has delivered a 75% increase in EBITDA since 1H FY20, driven by focus on strategic cost efficiency and profitable growth initiatives.

REVENUE

MENA & EURASIA

MENA

Broad market trading challenges and pandemic-related restrictions in market openness persisted, affecting demand for commercial fabrics.

GALE's tightened credit policy improved overall and long-dated debtors, although constraining trading across select customers and markets.

REVENUE

EURASIA

Revenue growth and profit expansion was attributed to increased demand for GALE's differentiated commercial architectural shade fabrics across Europe and Asia and higher demand for branded consumer products in Japan.

Growth was achieved despite pandemic-related market restrictions, international shipping constraints, and cost inflation.

OUTLOOK

2H FY22 PBT IS ANTICIPATED TO BE COMPARABLE TO 2H FY21 AT $8.5 MILLION.

- GALE expects accelerated business performance and additional pricing programs in the Americas region throughout the summer selling season.
- Volatility and cost inflation across international and domestic supply chains and inflation in raw materials and labour expected to persist throughout 2H FY22.
- GALE will continue to invest in its growth strategy of building a faster-growing business, particularly in the Americas, with ongoing product innovation, market expansion, and operations improvement initiatives.
- The Board remains focused on building long-term shareholder value and believes that the current share price does not reflect the Company's full underlying value.
- The Company has retained Luminis Partners to evaluate options to unlock shareholder value further.
