GALE Pacific upgrades earnings guidance for H1 FY2016

- H1 FY2016 profit before tax expected to be between $2.75 – $3.25 million (H1 FY2015 (underlying): $0.70 million)
- FY2016 profit before tax anticipated to be weighted to H2 with growth on previous corresponding period also expected
- Revenue in first three months of FY2016 up 26% compared to FY2015
- Positive earnings momentum for FY2016

As a result of a stronger than expected first quarter operating performance, the Board of GALE Pacific Limited (GALE or the Company) is pleased to upgrade its previous guidance for FY2016.

The Board expects that its profit before tax for the six months to 31 December 2015 will be approximately $2.75 - $3.25 million, significantly above the profit before tax for the previous corresponding period $0.70 million (underlying). Full year FY2016 profit before tax is anticipated to be heavily weighted to the second half, consistent with the historical seasonality existing in the business, and we do anticipate growth in the second half over the prior corresponding period.

Nick Pritchard, GALE's Group Managing Director, said: 'we are pleased with the strong start we have witnessed in the first three months of FY2016, in particular the achievements which have been made in improving the Australian supply chain and warehousing processes. Coupled with robust revenue growth over the prior year, we are encouraged by the visibility in the Company's earnings outlook for the balance of FY2016.'
